

Road Safety Stakeholder Consultation Workshop Wednesday 21 July 2021, 10.00-15.30, on Teams

Organised by PACTS in association with the Department for Transport

Programme – as delivered

Chairs: David Davies, PACTS and Dan Campsall, Agilysis

Session 1: The challenge and the opportunities

10.00 - 11.15

- After the 2019 Road Safety Statement, Ros Wall, Director 2 – Road Safety Standards and Services, Department for Transport
- Safe Roads for All, Mary Williams, Chief Executive, Brake
- Ingredients for success – an international view, Fred Wegman, Professor of Traffic Safety, Delft University of Technology

11.15-11.30 – break

Session 2: Road safety from other angles

11.30 – 12.30

- Safety, active travel and media, Rt Hon Norman Baker, Adviser to CEO, Campaign for Better Transport
- Technology opportunities for greater safety, Ashley Bijster, ITS UK

Lunch

12.30 – 13.15

Session 3: Getting the architecture right

13.15 – 14.00

- The needs of subnational transport authorities, Nadeem Mohammed, Road Safety Manager, Transport for Greater Manchester
- Positioning road safety in the DfT and government, Steve Gooding, Director, RAC Foundation

Session 4: Pooling UK expertise and outcomes from today

14.00-15.30 (See agenda below)

- Roundtable A – led by Pauline Reeves, Deputy Director, Road User Licensing, Insurance and Safety (RULIS), Department for Transport
- Roundtable B – led by Baroness Vere of Norbiton, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State, Minister for Roads, Buses and Places, Department for Transport [by invitation]
(See agenda below)

Close 15.30

Agenda for Roundtables

1. Safe vehicles – vehicles already on the road, safety features on new vehicles, future of vehicles
2. Safe road users – human factors, training/qualification, information and enforcement
3. Safe roads and roadsides – design, operation and maintenance, for all users
4. Post-collision activities and data

Safe speeds will be relevant to all of above.

Department for Transport

Organised by PACTS in association with the Department for Transport